“The Moments Between Dreams,” Being Called A Novel for Our Times

Book Signing Event MAY 12 at THE BEN HOTEL, West Palm Beach

(APRIL 2023) - Tickets are still available for an entertaining evening May 12th at the Ben Hotel, when the author of an award-winning novel, The Moments Between Dreams, is ready to share behind-the-scene stories with the West Palm Beach reading community. Folks will meet author Judith F. Brenner while attendees enjoy a culinary experience thanks to the ingenuity of Experience Epic Events which delivers a unique book club concept to the arts and culture scene.

This Book Stack Book Club event will feature a delectable culinary experience and drink pairing curated by international celebrity Chef Marc Rosen, a Q&A with the featured author, and entertaining hosts, Sarah Martin and Alex Myers.

“The Book Stack Book Club is NOT your grandmother’s book club! It presents dynamic programming with a meet & greet and Q&A with hand selected authors who align with the values of The Ben’s literary inspiration,” says organizer Sarah Martin.

The novel won the prestigious Benjamin Franklin Award in Fiction from IBPA, and was a Top 100 Notable Indie designation by Shelf Unbound magazine.

In this courageous story, The Moments Between Dreams characters feel apprehension during the 1940s, when some 60,000 children were infected by the Polio virus, and thousands died, with more than one-third were paralyzed. The novel also reflects the impact of emotional abuse and domestic violence on families, an issue relevant today despite hotlines. For example,

Florida's certified domestic violence centers provided 412,360 nights of emergency shelter to 10,287 survivors of domestic violence and their children. Source URL
